

Detail Design

Order Managing

Ver 1.0

Created by	Nguyen Minh Nghia	Created date	12/03/2024
Updated by		Updated date

Overview

The Manage Order screen provides admins a list of orders with basic information of each order, some status of total orders.

Screen Layout

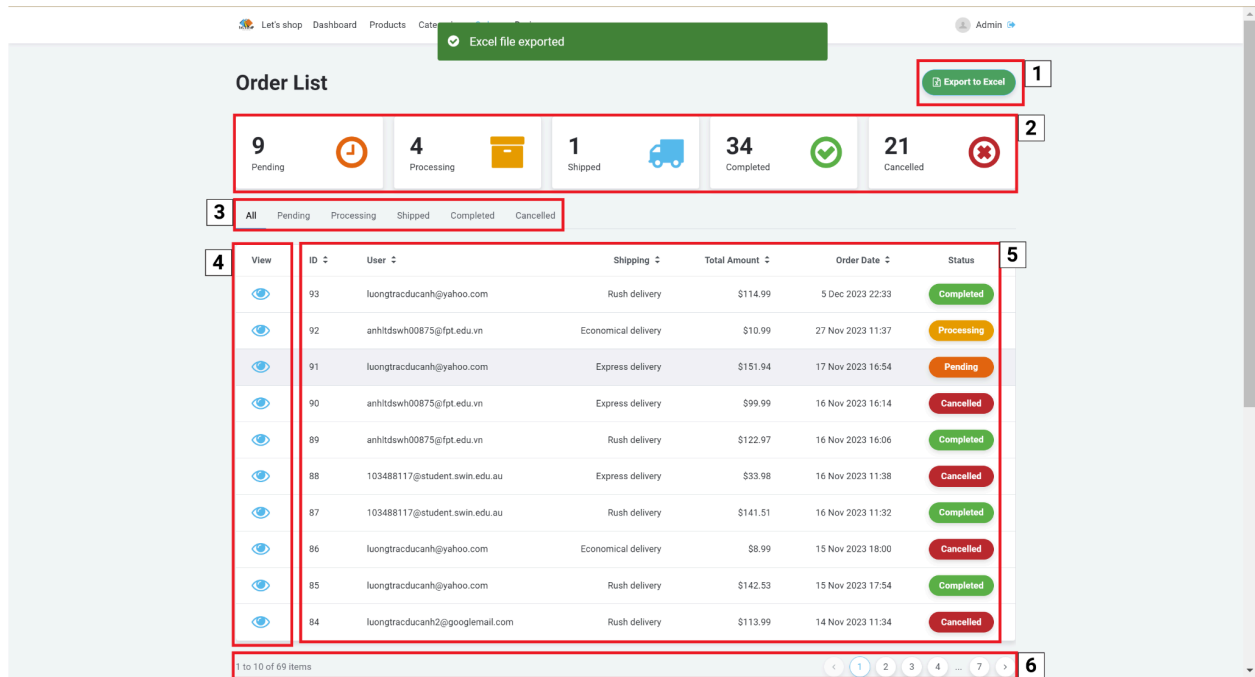

Figure 1: Default screen

No.	Item Name	Item Type	Input Length	Data Type	DB Table	Field
1	Export Excel	Button	-	-	-	-
2	Orders Status Summary	Card	-	-	Order	OrderID, StatusId
3	Order Status filter	Filter	-	-	Order	StatusId
4	View	Button	-	-	-	-
5	Order Detail	Table	-	-	Order	OrderID, UserId, ShippingID, TotalAmount, OrderDate, StatusId
6	Page navigation	Navigate	-	-	-	-

Processing Detail

A. Initial display

Item Name	Status
Status cards	Total number of Orders with corresponding status
Orders list	List of orders get from database
Orders basic information	Information related to specific order (ID, User's email, Shipping method, Total cost, Date, Status)
Total number of Orders	Total number of orders in the system

Figure 5: Screen initial display

B. Processing flow

Figure 7: Processing flow

1. The page initially shows all a list of orders which is obtained from the table Orders and their information which is obtained Order, OrderItem, Product, Shipping, Status. There are several display cards at the top of the page to show the total number order in each status.
2. The admin checks the current status of the order.
3. The admin decides if they want to see the only the orders in selected status
 - If yes, the admin can click on the tabs below the display card to filter the orders.
4. The admin decides if they want to export the orders to Excel file
 - If yes, the admin can click on the Export Excel button on the right corner and select the time period to get the excel file of orders.
5. The admin decides if they want to see or update the orders' detail
 - If yes, the admin can click on the Eye icon on the View column and move to the Order Detail Page.